Richmond, VA

Assistant/Associate Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice

The Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice at Virginia Union University invites applications for a non-tenure track (but tenure-eligible) position at the assistant or associate professor level. The Department seeks to fill this position for the spring 2017 or fall 2017 semester. Criminology and Criminal Justice is the largest academic major on the campus and the department has a unique partnership with the City of Richmond Police Training Academy which is located on the University's campus.

Minimum Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or Criminology from a regionally accredited institution is required at the time of appointment. A Juris Doctorate, Ph.D. in Sociology, or a terminal Master's degree is not an appropriate degree for this position. ABD applicants may be considered if they meet preferred qualifications and have their degree in hand by January 15, 2016. Official copies of college transcripts must be on file by the appointment date. Teaching experience, service, and record of scholarly activity appropriate to the rank is desirable.

Preferred Qualifications: The department seeks a dynamic individual to teach core and elective undergraduate courses in criminal justice and criminology and maintain an active research agenda. Individuals who have experience with the development and teaching of online courses will also be given preference. In addition to teaching, the position entails undergraduate student advising, active participation in department, college and university committees, and active involvement in scholarly activities such as publishing and obtaining grants. Other duties may be assigned as needed, and excellence in teaching, research, and service is required for future promotion and tenure consideration.

The selected applicant may be required to submit to a background investigation. VUU is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative-Action Institution committed to cultural, racial, and ethnic communities and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. It is expected that successful candidates share in this commitment. Persons who need reasonable accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act to participate in the application process should contact the Office of Human Resources at 804-257-5841.

Application Deadline: Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Members of the Search Committee will be available at the annual conference of the American Society of Criminology to conduct screening interviews.

Contact: For qualified applicants, the application packet should contain a letter of interest, curriculum vita, a copy of graduate transcripts, sample publication and syllabus, and three current letters of recommendation (at least one of which addresses teaching qualifications.) The application package may be e-mailed to Resumes@vuu.edu. Mail complete package to the following address: Virginia Union University, Office of Human Resources, Attention: CCJ Faculty Search Committee, 1500 North Lombardy Street, Richmond, VA 23220. Please contact Dr. Julie Molloy, Chairperson of the Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, if you have questions about this position. She may be reached at 804-257-5682 or jamolloy@vuu.edu.
