 Honor Roll of Donors10

“IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...” How many times have you heard the stories from family and friends? Some of them make you laugh. Some of them make you cry. But they all make you proud to be affiliated with this great institution called Virginia Union University. This year’s annual report is dedicated to some very dynamic individuals with unique stories to tell. Some represent current students, some are recent graduates, and some walked these “hallowed grounds” quite some time ago. We hope that these compelling stories will enlighten and encourage all of our supporters to further the cause of Virginia Union.

We thank you for your support this past year and we look forward to your continued efforts on behalf of Virginia Union as we prepare to celebrate 150 years of educational excellence in 2015. We are quite busy getting ready for the big celebration. The walls are slowly rising on the new Robert J. Brown Living and Learning Center. A new police security booth now greets visitors at the Graham Road entrance to campus. Our beloved Coburn Hall has a superb new stage and performance lighting system, and our students and faculty in the science department will begin work in their new chemistry lab this spring. These additions bring the total cost of campus improvements during the past several years to more than $6 million. This could not have been accomplished without your generous support and commitment to advancing the mission of Virginia Union University.

On behalf of the entire Virginia Union University family, I wish you a happy and prosperous holiday season. As the New Year approaches, please join us at our Annual Community Leaders Breakfast on January 17, 2014 and our Annual Scholarship Gala and Masquerade Ball on April 11, 2014.

Until then, may God bless you and your family and may God bless Virginia Union University.

Sincerely,

Claude G. Perkins

President's Message

IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

The Honorable Henry L. Marsh, III, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

If it had not been for Virginia Union University, I would not have acquired dynamic leadership skills, confidence in my public speaking ability, and a desire to serve my fellow man. Serving as president of the Student Government Association and as a member of the student disciplinary board while at VUU helped me to hone my skills in these areas.

Virginia Union University afforded me a first class education in a very genial environment with rigorous standards of academic excellence and I attribute that experience as having a major impact on my career and professional accomplishments. The faculty was supportive and nurturing and often went beyond the call of duty to foster success for each student.

If it had not been for VUU, I would not be a lifelong learner who has never lost my thirst for knowledge.

The Honorable Henry L. Marsh, III has been a member of the Virginia State Senate since 1991. He was elected the first African American mayor of Richmond, Virginia in 1977. During his many years of practice with the law firm of Hill, Tucker, and Marsh, he was involved in some of the most important civil rights cases in the United States. He earned a bachelor's degree in Sociology from Virginia Union and a law degree from the Howard University School of Law.

Brian Bullock, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

We often reflect on our college days and think about being away from home for the first time, all of the fun times and developed friendships, and yes, academic challenges. It's an exciting time of life for all. However, we don't often think about an institution in terms of "saving a life." That is exactly what Virginia Union University did for me. No, I did not come from a broken home or unstable environment. Plainly stated, I was lost and had a damaged self esteem as a result of a previous college experience. If it had not been for VUU, I would still be that lost young man. Virginia Union University not only took me in academically, I was taken in mentally and spiritually. I was pushed and encouraged in ways I never thought possible. I learned that I could compete at any level, and with hard work, DESERVED to be the best at whatever I wanted to do. Those qualities have remained with me to this very day. Virginia Union University not only provided me with an excellent education, it gave me the foundation to be successful in all aspects of life.

Brian Bullock is a writer, producer, and director of award-winning film projects, including Bringing Home the Bacon: The Roland McDaniel Story. His company, Bundy Films LLC, is currently developing a documentary about the "Richmond 34," a group of Virginia Union students arrested for conducting sit-ins in segregated downtown Richmond department stores during the Civil Rights struggle. He is a 1991 graduate of Virginia Union and also holds a master's degree from American University.

Calethia Christmas, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

If it had not been for VUU, I would not have spent the last year studying in China. My experience abroad changed me tremendously. It has given me such an appreciation for the little things. Being removed from your everyday setting allows you to really take a look at your own life. Without the hustle and bustle of my everyday routine, I got to really evaluate myself and my future. There was not one single day that I took for granted while I was in Shanghai. I made it a point to go out and do something. I think a lot of us get comfortable with our routines and do not even realize that time is something that you cannot get back. So not only did I start my journey of learning one of the hardest languages, Mandarin Chinese, but I also gained a new appreciation for time. Being an ambassador for studying abroad at Virginia Union University has also given me a great confidence boost. The welcome home from my VUU family has been tremendous. Everyone wants to hear my story and I feel like I might be able to change someone else's life as this trip has changed mine.

Calethia Christmas is a senior political science major who plans to attend law school to become an international attorney.

Quentin Hicks, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

Over a week ago, I had the opportunity to speak with a young student in my office at the request of his mother. His mother was concerned because she attended conferences with her son's teachers and one by one she received the same message. "Your son has the ability, but he does not put forth the effort necessary to be successful in his classes." In other words, he has the skills but is lazy. When I spoke with this young African American male, I asked him, "Why don't you try to put forth your best effort and are you satisfied with D's and E's on your report card?" His response was "I don't know." As the conversation moved forward, I told him how many African American males are stereotyped as lazy and how I didn't want him to fall into that category. His response to me blew me away when he said, "That's easy for you to say because you are a principal so I know you were a good student in school." I smiled at him and told him that was anything but true. As he continued to stare at me with a bewildered look on his face, I told him I barely graduated from high school with a 2.0 grade point average. He asked me what was it that made the difference for me. With pride I told him my college – Virginia Union University – believed in me, took a chance on me and I took every advantage of the opportunity that was given to me. With pride I told him if it wasn't for the Lord, my loving family, and Virginia Union, I don't know where I would be right now.

I remember like it was yesterday when I arrived on the campus in August of 1991 as a freshman at VUU. I was a second generation Unionite as my mother and father attended and graduated from the university. I knew it was a special place because of how my parents loved the university. At an early age I knew the words "Thy hallowed grounds and dear old walls may they forever be, dear Union we still love thee." But it was my time at Virginia Union that made a lasting impact on my life in ways I will never forget.

During my time at Virginia Union there were professors who taught me responsibility and exhibited a strong work ethic that remains with me to this day. They and other faculty members on the campus took in a young man who barely made it out of high school with a low "C" average and convinced me that I had a future and WOULD be successful. Break the STEREOTYPE was the message that I received time and time again and it was a message that I took to heart.

When I graduated from Virginia Union in 1996, I became a first year teacher at the high school where I barely graduated. I remember one day, during my first year, one of my former teachers who was now my co-worker asked me what it was that made the difference in my life. I looked at that person with a smile and said, "A God who believes in second chances, my family who loved me, and Virginia Union University who believed in me!"

Quentin Hicks is principal of Joliff Middle School in Chesapeake, Virginia. He received his bachelor's degree from Virginia Union in 1996 and a master's degree in Educational Administration from Regent University in 2002.

Dr. Cheryl Watkins, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

When I enrolled in Virginia Union University in August of 1974, it was one of the greatest moments in my life. I followed a brother and a sister to these hallowed grounds and dear old walls. Virginia Union is where I found myself.

I am proud to be a recipient of a quality education from Virginia Union University; an education that has enabled me to navigate through the professional arena and laid the groundwork for further studies and a wonderful career in the field of education.

VUU not only provided a stellar education for those of us attending, but also a sense of community, affirmation and acceptance. As I and other students graduated, we did so with a renewed sense of self worth, and a belief that we had something of extreme importance to offer to this country and to the world. Being in an environment where we were not the "minority," but were, rather, just part of a large group of people with like goals was worth more than anyone could imagine. We had professors who cared about us as individuals and they went the extra mile to make sure that we succeeded. Simply, college was an extension of home.

Historically black colleges and universities have come a long way. But we have miles to travel. Those of us who have gotten ahead because of the opportunities we were afforded cannot forget what a gift this university was to us. Virginia Union and all historically black colleges must be protected because they are not only an important part of our history, but also an important part of our future.

Dr. Cheryl Watkins is an adjunct professor at Mary Baldwin College. She earned an Ed.D. from Virginia Tech, a Master of Education from Virginia State, and a B.S. degree from Virginia Union.

Rev. Jonathan Pemberton, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

This institution we call Virginia Union University means a great deal to me. It is because of VUU that I am the person I am today. It was here at VUU that I was taught that God can take ordinary persons and transform them into extraordinary people. When I set foot on this campus, I knew I was at home. My commitment was to be the best student I could possibly be. And now as an alum, my commitment is to do everything possible to support my beloved Union. The experience that I had on these "Hallowed Grounds" and within these "Dear Old Walls" transformed me. Here on this campus: I met God, I found the true value of scholarship, and made lifelong friends. I thank God for the preacher He sent my way to tell me about this place called Virginia Union University.

Rev. Jonathan Pemberton is Youth and Young Adult Pastor at Queen Street Baptist Church in Norfolk, Virginia and president of the VUU Hampton Roads Alumni Chapter. He received a Bachelor of Arts in Religion and Philosophy from Virginia Union, as well as a Master of Divinity degree.

Monique Stone, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

Harrison Ford stated “We all have big changes in our lives that are more or less our second chance.” Virginia Union was my “big change” as well as my “second chance.” As a 2010 high school graduate, I was overjoyed to have graduated on time as well as to have been accepted into what many said was an elite university. To my dismay, however, the entity and grandeur of this large, elite university was very humbling. I rarely spoke with my professors one on one and upon encountering financial hardship, I felt shunned. Having to take a semester off, I decided to apply to Virginia Union University. I noticed right away that this institution was for me when my professor saw me in the hallway and knew my name. I was even comfortable enough to share with her my sadness in having to start over and the fact that I would be graduating a year after my friends. I was quickly assured that everything happens for a reason and I was introduced to so many wonderful opportunities with respect to internships and scholarships. Virginia Union knows very well how to reward students that work hard and I am thankful that I transferred. As a resident assistant, I share my story a lot. “Had it not been for Virginia Union” I would have been at home sad and stressed. My first semester at Virginia Union I left with a balance owed on my account, only to pay it off when I returned spring semester to find that I had been awarded a UNCF scholarship.

Thankful doesn’t fully describe the emotions and tears I shed upon receiving my UNCF award letter. My second year at Virginia Union, I applied and was accepted to Meharry Medical College for a summer internship, one that went so well I have decided to pursue an MD/PHD in obstetrics and gynecology. Here at Virginia Union we are a family and I am so very proud to be a member of that family.

Monique Stone is a Biology major from Brooklyn, New York.

Mary Lee DePillars, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

Professors, administrators and staff who cared about every student and provided familial encouragement, intellectual nourishment and academic challenges that fostered a will to achieve and succeed were just some of the factors that led to my graduation. If it had not been for VUU, my spiritual growth might have been stunted. Living, studying and working in the presence of spiritual leaders and attending Tuesday and Thursday convocations, as well as Sunday Vespers, affirmed my love for God and instilled a set of values that continue to serve me well. If it had not been for VUU, I might not have had a career which I thoroughly enjoyed and which provided my family a reasonable standard of living. If it had not been for VUU, I might not have acquired the tools needed to foster success in life... independence, mental toughness, a firm but gentle spirit, and grace. And, if it had not been for VUU, I might not be looking forward to the approaching 50th anniversary of meeting my best friend our first day on campus. Blessed be the ties that bind. If it had not been for God and VUU...

Mary Lee DePillars retired as a senior vice president in the Corporate Personnel Group of Bank of America in 2000. She earned a B.S. degree in Business Administration from Virginia Union in 1974.

Fred Pinkston, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

At last count, more than 24 members of the Pinkston family have attended Virginia Union University. Starting in the 1920's and continuing to the current semester, from New Jersey to Florida and other points beyond, we have been represented at Union. Most of us lived in Florida, Washington D.C. and New Jersey when we attended Union. While all did not complete their formal education there, all were influenced by the tradition and legacy of "our school" as they found success in their chosen careers.

Virginia Union provided me the opportunity to build my self confidence through the personalized attention given to me by my professors. Campus clubs and organizations helped me to develop my leadership skills. I served as editor of the campus newspaper and was a member of the Student Government Association, the yearbook staff, the track team, and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

I will always be grateful to our President Dr. Samuel Proctor for the mentorship and guidance which he provided me and my brother, the late Rev. Frank G. Pinkston. (Frank became one of the leaders of the Richmond 34 and later the leader of the Civil Rights Movement in Central Florida.) If it had not been for VUU providing the nurturing and care for "a country boy with potential from Ocala, Florida," as Dr. Proctor used to say, I cannot imagine what my life would be like today.

Fred Pinkston is a retired educator who worked in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. He is also a past president of the Virginia Union University National Alumni Association.

Dr. Michelle McQueen-Williams, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

If it had not been for VUU, I would not have realized the limitless possibilities that life has to offer. It was at Virginia Union where a girl from Richmond's south side could begin the process of becoming more than she ever dreamed or imagined. She never imagined she would become Miss Virginia Union University 1987 and Who's Who Among Black Campus Queens featured in Ebony Magazine. She never imagined she would go on to earn an M.Ed. and Ph. D in Educational Leadership. She never imagined becoming a teacher, assistant principal, principal and now Director of Elementary Education in Henrico County Public Schools. She never imagined she would accept the call to ministry and return to VUU's Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology to earn a Master of Divinity degree. Yes, if it had not been for Virginia Union University that little city girl may not have become the woman she is today. I will be eternally grateful for the hallowed grounds and dear old walls of Virginia Union University where dreams really do come true.

Dr. Michelle McQueen-Williams is Director of Elementary Education for Henrico County Public Schools.

Rev. Michael Moore, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

"If it had not been for VUU..." is such a difficult sentence for me to complete because there are so many things that Virginia Union University has added to my life. As a double graduate of VUU, first as a member of the undergraduate class of 2009 and the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology Class of 2012, I have learned many lifelong lessons, met worthwhile people, and gained memories that will last a lifetime. It is Virginia Union that cultivated my leadership skills through my many roles in student leadership, including serving as Mr. Virginia Union University.

Today, through my roles as a minister and educator, I have leaned on my leadership experiences that have assisted me in leading my congregation and shaping young lives. It is Virginia Union that helped me to gain confidence in myself through caring faculty and staff who have pushed me to become a lifelong learner and to continue to strive for excellence. Currently, as I am enrolled at the College of William and Mary, I have had experiences sitting in classes as the only African American student, and it is Virginia Union that has prepared me to sit in those classrooms and perform with confidence. If it had not been for VUU, I would not have learned the phrase "It's not about where you are from, but where you are going." And as I am on a journey to leave my mark in this world, I want to keep striving and pressing forward, even when things get difficult. At VUU, my faith in God deepened, my understanding of the world expanded, and my sense of self broadened. Thanks to VUU, I am one of the many persons who strongly believe that I do indeed have a limitless future.

Rev. Michael Moore is a native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, who is currently pastor-elect of Mt. Vernon Baptist Church in Richmond, Virginia. He is a double graduate of Virginia Union University.

Rev. Dr. C. Diane Mosby, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

If it had not been for VUU, simply stated, I would not be a college graduate today. I was blessed to matriculate through the Evans-Smith Leadership Institute and upon graduation I was accepted into the School of Theology as a “special admissions” student. In 2004, I graduated summa cum laude and valedictorian and was conferred the Master of Divinity degree. I earned my Doctor of Ministry degree in May 2012, all because the Dean, faculty and staff of this great university were willing to give me a chance and say “yes!” Today, I live out my life’s calling as founding visionary and pastor of the Anointed New Life Baptist Church, community activist, and advocate for veterans and their families. My life has been made richer and more rewarding because of these “hallowed grounds and dear old walls.” I am eternally grateful and I shall never forget what VUU has done for me.

Rev. Dr. C. Diane Mosby is pastor of the Anointed New Life Baptist Church. She received the Master of Divinity from Virginia Union’s Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology in 2004 and the Doctor of Ministry in 2012.

Dr. André Hudson, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

Virginia Union University is the foundation that is most responsible for the person I am today on both professional and personal levels. As such, VUU means a lot to me and is near and dear to my heart. VUU not only provided me with the education that was necessary to facilitate my career path but, most importantly, it provided me with inspiration. I was involved in the National Institutes of Health Minority Access to Research Careers, Undergraduate Student Training in Academic Research (MARC U*STAR) program. This program provided me with the opportunity to take additional courses related to biochemistry and molecular biology, which enhanced my repertoire of courses that I would need to continue my education in graduate school. In addition, the program provided me with the opportunity to participate in a Graduate Record Examination (GRE) Preparatory Course to enhance my competitiveness for acceptance into graduate school. The faculty members in the Biology Department while I was a student from 1996-2000 inspired and molded me into the person I am today. If it was not for VUU, I would not have met Dr. Anthony Madu. He has been my mentor since the first day I arrived on campus. Dr. Madu provided me with peer-impact inspiration by seeing the path he took to become a scientist and an academician. As an undergraduate researcher in Dr. Madu’s laboratory, I participated on a project that assessed the presence or absence of pathogenic bacteria on fresh farm produce. This experience was very instrumental in shaping my career as an independent researcher. Dr. Madu provided a warm, encouraging and dynamic experience in his lab and gave me the opportunity to think independently. This experience provided me with the confidence I needed to pursue my graduate work. It should be noted that 15 years later, I am still involved in this project as a faculty member at the Rochester Institute of Technology, in my own lab, where I study bacterial endophytes from plants that are agronomically and economically important.

On a personal level, if it was not for VUU, I would not have met my beautiful wife Candice Hudson who graduated from VUU with a degree in education in 2000. Candice and I have been married for 11 years and we have a beautiful and wonderful 7 year old son (Michael). Moreover, VUU was responsible for my induction into Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Gamma Chapter. Being a part of an organization that strives to be excellent in Manly Deeds, Scholarship and Love For All Mankind provided me with a lifelong network of colleagues, friends and most importantly brothers who I love and cherish.

Dr. André Hudson is an Assistant Professor at the Rochester Institute of Technology Thomas H. Gosnell School of Life Sciences. He received a B.S. in Biology from Virginia Union in 2000 and a Ph.D. in Biochemistry from Rutgers University in 2006.

Naomi Hodge-Muse, IF IT HAD NOT BEEN FOR VUU...

For me the last part of that question should read, “Lord, tell me what I would have done.” God bless and keep Virginia Union University. I was raised in southwestern Virginia in a home without plumbing. The morning of my departure to Virginia Union I went to the spring and then to the woodpile. I placed two buckets of water behind the kitchen door and wood behind the cook stove. I was the first in my family to go to college. I won a four year full-tuition scholarship to Union in a science fair competition. In my footlocker was one new pair of shoes and one new dress. Everything else came from thrift stores. I worked 32 hours off campus, as well as my work study job on campus. I left class at 3:45 p.m. and rode my bicycle from Lombardy to West Broad St. and clocked in at the Giant Open Air Market at 4:00 pm. I got off at 12:00 midnight and rode my bike back to Union. I remember going to sleep shortly after returning to campus then waking up at 3:00 am to study. I worked during the summers and saved money to buy books but second semester was my problem. I never had enough money to buy all the books I needed. I was helped by so many professors and loving staff members. Through all of this, I was able to graduate and went to work for DuPont the day after Commencement. My Biology degree opened many doors. After two years, I went to work for Miller Brewing, today Miller-Coors, and I remained there for 30 years.

My mantra in college was “A winner never quits and a quitter never wins.” To students now I say, “Never quit believing in your dreams. Work hard, if you fall, get up and give it a better try.” Because I did not give up, I now have two sisters with college degrees and 3 graduates of Virginia Union in my family. My family is now known as one with college degrees. As a family unit, we have left our poor estate and are squarely middle class. One college degree can change not only your future but the face of your family. Virginia Union University is a mighty Oak standing by the waters. God bless and keep it.

Ms. Naomi Hodge-Muse is a retired manager for Miller-Coors Brewing Company. She holds a B.S. from VUU and an MBA from UNC-Greensboro.

Virginia Union University is indebted to the many investors who have so graciously generated support during the fiscal year 2012-2013. It is with great pleasure that the University recognizes and thanks those who have made financial commitments during the year. While every effort has been made to ensure accuracy of our investor lists, errors and omissions in this report may have occurred. Our supporters are assured of our appreciation for their generosity, and we apologize for any inaccuracies in this publication. We would appreciate having any errors brought to our attention.
