

Richmond Academic Library Consortium (RALC)

RALC Borrowing Pass: The RALC pass provides limited reciprocal borrowing privileges for students, faculty and staff in good standing of member libraries. Borrowers must abide by all policies of the lending library, including loan periods, fines, and replacement charges. Students must obtain a pass at their home library in order to borrow from another RALC institution. Faculty need only show their IDs.

VUU students needing a RALC pass should go to the Periodicals Desk.

Washington Theological Consortium (WTC)

A faculty member or student who wishes to borrow books must first present a Consortium Form (WTC Library Borrowing Form) validated for the current semester and signed by the home librarian from the Consortium member school, and a current student ID card from the Consortium member school (that includes or is accompanied by photo ID). More info. WTC Member Schools <http://washtheocon.org/members/> ; WTC Member Libraries <http://washtheocon.org/libraries/>
