

Instructions for Accessing Library Databases from Off-Campus (remote) Locations

1. Start on the Library's homepage at <http://www.vuu.edu/library.aspx> .
2. Locate the heading, Off Campus Users on the main library page. Underneath this heading is the link Click here for databases, electronic journals, e-books, & other Resources. Click this link.

L. Douglas Wilder Library & Learning Resource Center

Library Online Catalog	Library News
WALNET	Library Newsletter
Research	Library General Information
LibGuides: Course & Library Research Guides DATABASES E-BOOKS for on-campus users (for locations on the VUU campus) Electronic Journals Richmond Academic Library Consortium (RALC) School of Theology Resources	Hours Policies Forms Review Your Library Account Library Administration Library Faculty & Staff Circulation & Reference Friends of the Library Library Tour
Off Campus Users Databases, Electronic Journals, & other Resources E-BOOKS for off-campus users (for locations not on the VUU campus)	Archives & Special Collections University History The L. Douglas Wilder Collection The Spencer Collection Sampson Watson Collection HBCU Digital Collection

3.

4. You should now be on the Off Campus Users page.
5. Click the link for "Databases (find articles)".
6. This will take you to the Off Campus Access to VUU—L. Douglas Wilder Library Electronic Databases page.
7. You may want to bookmark this page on your computer for quicker & easier access.
8. Log-in instructions for access to databases are on the page. Please have your VUU e-mail username and password ready.
9. If you do not have this—please contact the Information Technology Center at 804-257-5630 or <http://www.vuu.edu/technology.aspx> for your VUU e-mail username and password.

Please report any broken links to slemon@vuu.edu or pforeman@vuu.edu.

Thank you.