The Virginia Union student is a proud and responsible citizen of the University community and the local community and will always conduct her or himself in a responsible manner.

1. CLASS ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance and punctuality are very important for success in an academic and professional setting. Students are required to adhere to attendance and punctuality policies as specified in course outlines of professors. The maximum number of unexcused absences (with tardiness counted as a component of unexcused absence as determined by the professor) is 10% of the course credit hours. Therefore, the maximum number of absences is as follows: Four (4) absences for a four credit hour course; three (3) absences for a three credit hour course, etc. Students may be subject to having the course grade lowered or assigned additional work at the discretion of the professor.

When students accumulate absences, the instructor will send the appropriate form to the General. A copy of the form will be sent to the student's advisor and to the chair of the department for further action.

2. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY

Academic dishonesty is any form of giving, taking, or prescribing information or material by a student with intent to gain an unfair advantage in an academic evaluation. Forms of dishonesty include but are not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and aiding and abetting others to cheat or plagiarize.

A. PENALTIES

Any person who cheats, plagiarizes, or aids and abets others to either cheat or plagiarize is subject to one or more of the following penalties:

Probation – On the first offense, a student charged with any violation of academic dishonesty is awarded a grade of “F” for that particular assignment involved. On the second offense (in the same course), the student receives an “F” for that course.

Judicial referral – On the third offense, a student charged with any violation of academic dishonesty will be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs for a formal hearing by the Student Conduct Review Board.

B. PROCEDURE

When an incident of academic dishonesty occurs, the exhibit(s) shall be collected, witness statements shall be taken, and an incident report form shall be completed and filed with the Department Chairperson by the faculty member. This procedure is the same as that for the resolution of problems described in the University Faculty Handbook.

C. PROVISION FOR VINDICATION

The Deans have the authority to recommend to the Vice President for Academic Affairs a change of grade of students found not guilty, and then the allegations of cheating will be purged from the student's record if the recommendation is approved.

4. GRADE APPEALS

It is the policy of the University that undergraduate students may appeal course grades they consider unfairly assigned. Appeals must be initiated within 30 days after the beginning of the next semester. Students must first discuss the grade with the faculty member. If the student continues to feel that the grade was unfairly assigned, the student must contact the chairperson of the department in which the course was taught. If there is no resolution of the issue at the department level, students must then contact the Dean of the School in which the course was taught. If the student is still not satisfied, a written grade appeal may be submitted to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. The appeal must state and support with evidence the reason(s) why the student believes the grade should be changed.

5. SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS: ACADEMIC WARNING, PROBATION, AND SUSPENSION

The minimum standard for satisfactory academic progress is a cumulative GPA of 2.00. Academic probation is imposed when the cumulative GPA is less than 2.00. The student on academic probation has two academic semesters to raise the GPA to 2.00. Academic probation is lifted when the cumulative GPA is 2.00 or above. Academic performance will be reviewed at the end of each academic year.

A. DEFINITIONS:

Academic Probation:

Students on Academic Probation are required to improve their academic performance or face suspension from the University. Students on Academic Probation are usually not eligible for certain forms of financial aid. Students on probation are limited to thirteen (13) credit hours. A student on probation has the option of:

- Attending VUU in the summer in order to raise the GPA prior to the Fall semester of the next academic year.
- Is required to consult with his/ her departmental advisor prior to the beginning of the probationary semester and must sign a contract acknowledging that he/she is not meeting the University's academic standards and stating what actions he/she is willing to take to improve performance. This contract will state that students must attend all classes in each course and purchase a textbook for each course.

Academic Suspension:

Suspension will occur when a student on academic probation has a GPA of less than 2.00 at the end of the probationary period. Students who have been suspended at the end of an academic year must attend VUU in the summer in order to raise the GPA. VUU does not accept quality points from other institutions. If the GPA is raised to a 2.00 or better, the student's suspension will be rescinded. If the GPA is not raised during the summer session, the student will not be permitted to enroll until his/ her period of suspension of one semester is over. The student must reapply for admission to the University once the GPA has been raised. A maximum of two suspensions are permissible during a student's academic career at Virginia Union University.

B. PROCEDURE:

A.) of 2.0 or below will be placed on Academic Warning. This will take place whether or not the student is on probation. The student will receive a letter of warning, and they will be reminded of the University's policy on Academic Warning, Probation, and Suspension.

A student who has been suspended and readmitted will have a pre-suspension G. P. A., a post suspension G. P. A. and a cumulative G. P. A. A student who has been suspended and readmitted must maintain a post suspension G. P. A. of 2.00. If the identification card is lost, it can impact the health and safety of all students living in the residence halls. It is therefore imperative that students immediately report lost identification cards to VUU Campus Police. The Campus Police Office is located in Pickford Hall. The fee to replace a lost identification card is $50.00 the first time and increases by 100% for each subsequent replacement. If an identification card may be unreadable due to day-to-day use, it can be returned to the Campus Police department for replacement at no additional cost.

JUDICIAL AND DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

Virginia Union University (VUU) is an educational community of scholars in which the ideas of freedom of inquiry, freedom of thought, freedom of expression and freedom of the individual are valued. The exercise and preservation of these freedoms require a respect of the rights of all in the community to enjoy them to the same extent. Each student and student organization assumes an obligation to conduct himself or herself in a manner compatible with the University's function as an educational institution. The University thus has the responsibility to maintain an environment, which is appropriate to its ideals and its educational mission.

The VUU judicial system exists to respond to alleged violations of campus policies and regulations by students or student organizations. The aim of the student disciplinary process is to encourage responsible behavior, to maintain social order, and to protect the rights of all. Fundamental to the aim of this process is the principle of "due process/fundamental fairness," which provides the framework for the adjudication of student or student organization misconduct and/or breach of institutional policies and regulations. Sanctions may be imposed singularly, or in combination, for individuals or student organizations.

Students are advised that a disciplinary sanction imposed by the University does not preclude the possibility of separate criminal or civil prosecution, and that conversely, questionable conduct external to the campus may be grounds for University disciplinary action as well. The Code of Virginia (Section 23-9:2) confers upon the University the responsibility for maintaining order within the University, and for disciplining those who are disruptive to the educational process.

This includes reviewing alleged violations, conducting investigations when appropriate, notifying the student of the time and place of the hearing or conference, informing students of the decisions rendered and notifying other members of the University community as appropriate regarding the action taken. The Director of Judicial Affairs is also responsible for the preparation and submission of statistical and evaluative reports to the campus community. The Director of Judicial Affairs may also serve as the Administrative Hearing Officer as appropriate.

ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING OFFICER

The Administrative Hearing Officer (AHO) provides administrative support during judicial hearings. This individual is a non-voting member of the appropriate hearing bodies and can also serve as the hearing officer for all informal hearings. The AHO is responsible for maintaining all of the necessary forms and records during a judicial hearing, training of all hearing boards and mediators, and providing administrative oversight to the Student Conduct Review Board, the Judicial Appeals Board, and Mediators.

STUDENT CONDUCT REVIEW BOARD

The Student Conduct Review Board adjudicates cases of alleged violations of the Standards of Conduct involving both individual students and student organizations. The minimum quorum for this Board is one Administrative Hearing Officer (non-voting), one Student Facilitator (voting), one Student Recorder (voting), one Student Clerk (voting), one Faculty member (voting), and one Staff member (voting).

JUDICIAL APPEAL BOARD

The minimum quorum for the Judicial Appeal Board is one Faculty member (voting), one Staff member (voting) and one Student member (voting).

If for any reason the minimum quorum can not be met for either a Student Conduct Review or Judicial Appeals Board hearing, the student will be given the option to either reschedule the assigned hearing for another date or proceed with the assigned hearing in the absence of either party(s) mentioned above.

III. Student Code of Conduct

A University community can function effectively only when the rights and obligations of its members are recognized. All students, aside from their responsibilities to the community as a whole, must be especially conscious of individual dignity, rights, needs and aspirations. This involves thoughtful consideration of the welfare and reputation of the University and its members. Of particular concern to the University are areas of misconduct (Table of Violations), which may result in disciplinary action, including suspension or dismissal from the University. (Please note that this code is not exclusive; other prohibited conduct may be specified in the catalog or other University regulations.)

Certain behaviors are completely unacceptable at Virginia Union University. The Vice President for Student Affairs may immediately suspend any student exhibiting behavior(s) such as, but not limited to physical abuse, and possession of, or use of drugs, and weapons pending a judicial hearing. Students who instigate such behaviors including verbal assaults, damage to property, hitting, pushing, slapping or other behaviors that instigate fighting will also be dealt with severely. Further, any student who taunts, encourages fighting, or is in the audience of a fight will also be dealt with severely through the judicial system.

The Vice President for Student Affairs has “emergency powers” which may be exercised to suspend judicial procedures when in that officer’s judgment, conditions are such that an emergency situation exist which makes it impossible for the system, or judicial boards to function. When this occurs, the Vice President or his/her designee may substitute for those arrangements for handling disciplinary matters, to ensure the orderly functioning of the University, and also to safeguard the basic rights of the students.

Sanctions cited after each violation note the minimum that can and will be imposed if evidence substantiates that a violation has occurred. However, any sanction may be imposed as deemed necessary. The Table of Violations and Possible Sanctions, of the Code of Conduct, for non-compliance is included in a separate attachment.

SEXUAL ASSAULT/HARASSMENT POLICY

RATIONALE

- (a) Sexual harassment will not be tolerated at Virginia Union University. Prohibited by both Federal and State law, sexual harassment destroys the positive work and educational environs of the University community and constrains the productivity and effectiveness of its trustees, faculty, academic staff, administrators, and students. Sexual harassment undermines the University's ability to fulfill its educational mission. Because the University believes strongly in cultivating and maintaining a work environment where gender issues are not a source of unfair treatment, embarrassment, and/or intimidation, it has implemented an anti-sexual harassment policy in order to sensitize as well as inform those being educated and working within the University community.
- (b) Sexual harassment is especially serious when it threatens relationships between faculty and student or supervisor and subordinate. A faculty or supervisor can have a decisive influence on a student's, staff member's, or faculty member's career at the University and beyond.
- (c) While sexual harassment usually occurs in situations where a power differential exists between the persons involved, the University also recognizes that sexual harassment may occur between persons of the same University status. The University will not tolerate behavior between or among members of the University community that creates an unacceptable working or educational environment.

PURPOSE

Sexual assault is a crime punishable by both civil and criminal legal action and a serious violation of the Virginia Union University Standards of Conduct. The University offers procedural steps for the resolution of cases of alleged sexual assault. These steps provide an opportunity for both parties in the dispute to present their versions of the incident and to come to some understanding about the nature of the incident and its effect on the complainant, the accused, and the University community.

POLICY STATEMENT

Virginia Union University will not tolerate abusive physical contact, domestic violence, or rape by any member of the University community. Upon receipt of a complaint as outlined above, the University will take immediate action, appropriate to the charge presented by the complainant. This action may take the form of an investigation, hearing, counseling and/or disciplinary action. Use of these procedures does not preclude the use of other dispute resolutions including civil and/or criminal charges.

PROCEDURES: What To Do If You Are Sexually Assaulted Or Raped

- 1. GET TO A SAFE PLACE AS SOON AS YOU CAN.
- 2. TRY TO PRESERVE ALL PHYSICAL EVIDENCE. If you can avoid doing so, do not wash, use the toilet, or change clothing. If you do change clothes, put all clothing (including under clothes) you were wearing at the time of the assault in a PAPER BAG, not plastic.
- 3. CONTACT UNIVERSITY POLICE by calling 257-5600 on any campus phone or the local police by calling 911.
- 4. GET MEDICAL ATTENTION as soon as possible. A medical examination will provide any necessary treatment and collect important evidence. Injuries may not be immediately apparent.
- 5. TALK WITH A STAFF PERSON IN THE OFFICE OF STUDENT DEVELOPMENT, STUDENT HEALTH, OR REQUEST AN OFF CAMPUS SEXUAL ASSAULT AGENCY. The university student development officer will maintain confidentiality, help explain your options, give you information, and provide emotional support. You may call the Student Development Office at 257-5874.
- 6. CONTACT SOMEONE YOU TRUST, a close friend, a counselor, the Resident Assistant, Housing Coordinator, Director of Residence Life or other individuals who can be with you and support you.

PAST ABUSE

Some individuals experience sexual assault and do not tell anyone about it at the time the incident occurred. If you were victimized weeks ago or even years ago, assistance is still available. Talking with someone now may help you cope better with abuse from the past, whether it was rape, child sexual abuse, incest, or sexual harassment.

MALE VICTIMS

While most victims of sexual assault are women, some men are also victims. Male victims at the University will receive the same services as women.

MEDICAL TREATMENT

It is important to seek both immediate and follow-up medical attention for several reasons: (1) to assess and treat any physical injuries you have sustained; (2) to determine the risk of sexually transmitted diseases or pregnancy and take preventive measures; and (3) to gather evidence which would aid criminal prosecution. Physical evidence should be collected immediately, ideally within the first 24 hours. It may be collected later than this, however, the quality and quantity of evidence may be diminished.

IMMEDIATE EMERGENCY SERVICES

At the hospital, an Emergency Department Physician or Gynecologist performs a special hospital examination. A nurse is present throughout the procedure and a support person of your choice also may be present. The hospital emergency department follows national standards for victim care, rape examinations and evidence collection procedures.

TRANSPORTATION

The University will provide transportation to the hospital for a victim of sexual assault, if necessary. To arrange transportation, call University Police at 257-5600 and state your need for immediate assistance.

NON-EMERGENCY MEDICAL PROCEDURES

Even if you do not choose to have a hospital examination, it is still important for you to get medical attention. An examination in this case will include treatment of any physical problems and various lab tests for sexually transmitted diseases and pregnancy. This non-emergency treatment can be arranged on campus by calling the Student Health Center at 257-5885 and making an appointment. The Student Health Center is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. If you say that you have been a victim of sexual assault, you will receive priority scheduling over routine patients. After hours contact, University Police at 804-257-5850.

REPORTING TO CAMPUS POLICE

Immediately following an incident, call the University Police emergency number at 257-5600. Reporting to the University Police helps: (a) protect the victim and others from future victimization; (b) apprehend the alleged assailant; and (c) maintain future options regarding criminal prosecution, University disciplinary action, and/or civil action against the perpetrator.

When you report the incident, a member of the University Police will take a statement from you regarding what happened. The Richmond Bureau of Police also will be contacted and you will be asked to identify or describe the alleged assailant(s). You may be asked questions about the scene of the crime, witnesses, and what happened before and after the incident.

Reporting an incident is a separate step from choosing to prosecute. When you file a report, you are not obligated to continue with legal proceedings or University disciplinary action.

The University Police will take a written report, which will be important to you, in case you decide to bring charges, immediately or at a later date. You also may request that your identity be kept confidential.

EMOTIONAL SUPPORT

You can reach a Student Development Officer or counselor at 257-5874 during regular office hours. The Counselor also maintains an on-call schedule for emergencies and may be reached through the University Police. The Counselor is available to intervene in a crisis situation and to provide you with information about your options, including medical assistance, psychological counseling, University and disciplinary action.

The Student Development Officer or Counselor can provide safe, confidential support for you during this difficult period. She/he can inform you of common reactions to crisis and discuss coping methods that may assist you immediately following the assault and later. Talking about your concerns with the Counselor may help you sort through your feelings and decide what to do.

You are not required to disclose your name if the Counseling Office is contacted. The Counselor will not reveal your identity to anyone without your permission.

UNIVERSITY DISCIPLINARY ACTION

If a victim is considering University disciplinary action after a sexual assault, she/he is encouraged to discuss the matter with the Vice President for Student Affairs, the University Counselor, The Director of Judicial Affairs or the University Police. This will allow a chance to review procedures followed by the University's disciplinary/judicial system.

If a non-student University employee has sexually assaulted you, this is a violation of the law and University policy. Complaints should be filed with the Vice President for Student Affairs and University Police.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION AND CHARGES

To bring criminal charges after a sexual assault, the University Police will assist you with notifying the appropriate authorities. The case itself will come under the jurisdiction of the Courts of the City of Richmond, or the jurisdiction in which the crime occurred.

If apprehended, the suspect will be taken into custody by police and charged with the appropriate offenses at a preliminary arraignment. The assailant may be jailed or released on bail depending upon the circumstances of the crime. If you live on-campus and the assailant contacts you after charges have been filed, or you feel threatened in any way, you should call the University Police. If you are off-campus and are contacted by the assailant or feel threatened, you should call the investigating officer handling the case in the jurisdiction in which the crime occurred. You should also advise University Police of your concern. The appropriate authorities may revoke bail and you may file additional charges if necessary. If you reside off campus, but are on campus when you feel threatened, contact University Police and then the investigating officer.

An attorney from the Commonwealth Attorney's Office will handle the criminal proceedings. You also may wish to speak with your personal or family attorney for legal advice.

IV. Nature of the Process

The implementation of disciplinary procedures is held to be a function of the educational and developmental processes. Student discipline, therefore, may not be construed as a form of criminal proceedings. A student's disciplinary hearing is not the same as a trial or court proceeding.

The VUU disciplinary process does not require that the violation be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. However, a student's violation of the Standards of Conduct should be established by clear and convincing evidence.

Students who are alleged to be in violation of University policies or regulations, as an individual, or as members of a group or organization, will be accorded "fundamental fairness" and given a fair hearing and the right to an appeal.

PRE-HEARING PROCEDURES

I. Report of Violation

Any member of the University, local community or agency can report an alleged violation of the Standards of Conduct to Campus Police, the Vice President of Student Affairs, the Office of Judicial Affairs, the Office of Residence Life, or other University offices. All reports must be submitted in writing. Emailed reports submitted to the Director of Judicial Affairs are acceptable. All allegations of student misconduct are sent to the Director of Judicial Affairs for review and action.

II. Investigation

The Director of Judicial Affairs and/or Campus Police will conduct an investigation. The purpose of the investigation is to gather information about the alleged violation and make recommendations as to whether or not there is enough evidence to present charges. The investigating officers, jointly or separately, have the authority to question parties and request written statements of what was experienced and/or witnessed during the incident. If a student does not provide a statement, the investigator's notes will be used as official documentation of the incidents.

III. Pre-Hearing Procedure

After completing the investigation, the Director of Judicial Affairs will notify the accused student of the status of his or her case. If there is not sufficient information presented, the Director of Judicial Affairs will explain the status of the case or may close the case. If there is sufficient evidence, the Director of Judicial Affairs will present the accused student with a written statement of charges, and a statement of student rights, and will provide information pertaining to the hearing procedures. Hearings are scheduled no less than 48 hours from the date the hearing notice is emailed.

The accused student may request (in writing) to waive the 48 hour hearing waiting period and have their hearing take place immediately. Every effort will be made to accommodate the written request, however, this does not guarantee immediate disposition of the case.

IV. Joint Charges/University Charges

Grievances may be filed individually or jointly with another representative of the University (for example: Campus Police, Pan-Hellenic Council, another student, or a faculty or staff member). In addition, the University reserves the right to pursue violations on its own if sufficient witnesses can document the occurrence of a violation (as determined by the investigator or other university official). If the University files a grievance, the aggrieved student does not forfeit any of his/her disciplinary rights.

V. Residence Life Violations

- a) Students residing in the residence hall are required to adhere to the student Codes of Conduct and the policies outlined in the Residence Life Handbook.
- b) Most violations of the Residence Life Policies, which occur in the residence halls, may
 - be resolved in a meeting with the Director of Residence Life or the Residence Hall Director
 - be reported by the Residence Hall Director or to the Director of Residence Life
- c) Violations of the Standards of Conduct will be to the Office of Judicial Affairs.

VI. Notice of a Judicial Hearing

The accused student (and complainant, if necessary) will receive written notification (see form A) specifying the date, time and place of the hearing. The hearing notification will be e-mailed to the student at their official university e-mail address. Notification is complete when e-mailed to the student's official VUU e-mail address. The accused student is responsible for checking his/her e-mail on a regular basis. All parties are expected to arrive as scheduled for the hearing.

VII. Request for Postponement

The accused student or the complainant may ask for one postponement of a hearing. To request a postponement, a written request must be submitted to the Office of Judicial Affairs within 24 hours of the hearing date and time. Such requests may either be hand delivered or emailed via your VUU email account. Students should request a time/ date stamp for all hand delivered requests. Upon receipt of the written request, the Director of Judicial Affairs will make a decision as to whether or not the request is justifiable.

VIII. Witnesses

Based on the information provided, the hearing board will determine if the accused student will receive the names of all witnesses against the accused student and copies of written statements that will be presented to the Board at least 48 hours prior to the hearing. The accused student must provide a list of his/her witnesses, and any written statements to be presented to the Student Conduct Review Board, to the Director of Judicial Affairs at least 48 hours prior to the hearing in order for them to be allowed to testify at the hearing. The accused student and the complainant are both responsible for notifying his/her witnesses about the date, time and place of the hearing. The Student Conduct Review Board may limit the number of witnesses in order to reduce redundancy. Witnesses will be asked to affirm that the information provided is truthful and may be subject to charges of furnishing false information according to the Standards of Conduct.

IX. Presence of a Representative

The accused student is entitled to be accompanied by a representative of their choice for silent support only. The role of the representative is to support the accused student or witness throughout the hearing but they may not represent or speak on behalf of the accused student or witness, directly question witnesses, or address the hearing body for any reason. The accused student must notify the Director of Judicial Affairs in writing of the intent to bring a representative, or advisor at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of the hearing. If the student chooses to have an attorney as her/ his representative, the University's attorney must also be present.

X. Jurisdiction of the University – Off Campus Enforcement

The University's jurisdiction for discipline includes conduct which occurs both on and off University premises and which adversely affects the University Community and/or the pursuit of its objectives. When conduct violates both the law and guidelines found in this document, disciplinary action may be taken by the University irrespective of, and separate from, action taken by civil authorities. The University may proceed with disciplinary action before a trial or postpone action until after a trial, depending on the individual circumstances of a case.

JUDICIAL HEARING

The Student Conduct Review Board shall adjudicate alleged violations of the University's Standards of Conduct. Based on the information indicated in the incident report, the Director of Judicial Affairs shall determine if a hearing is appropriate.

If a hearing is required, the student will be notified in writing of the (a) violation, (b) hearing date, and (c) time and place of the hearing. Students showing just cause may be granted additional time to prepare a response. It is the student's responsibility to request additional time in writing. This request should be typed and submitted to the Office of Student Affairs 48 hours before the assigned hearing date. After the judicial hearing, the student will be provided written disposition of the case of the hearing.

In consultation with the Director of Judicial Affairs, the VUU Campus Police investigates and handles those complaints where violations of public law is indicated, when a felony is committed, or when assistance from the office is otherwise requested or needed.

HEARING PROCEDURES

The following procedures will govern all hearings conducted by a judicial or administrative body:

- a) In cases referred for adjudication, a student is informed in writing of the charges, the time, date and location of the hearing with at least 48 hours notice. Students showing just cause may be granted additional time to prepare a response.
- b) A hearing may proceed without the accused student(s) being present if the accused student has taken no steps to postpone his or her hearing or has not received approval for a deferred hearing date.
- c) The Administrative Hearing Officer, the Student Conduct Review Board member, and/or the Judicial Appeal Board member is expected to disqualify her/himself when a case involves a friend or someone toward whom the member does not feel he or she can be objective, or when there is a conflict of interest.
- d) The accused student is presumed not responsible until found responsible, however, the Vice President for Student Affairs may impose an interim suspension if the alleged offense is such that the student's presence on the campus, while awaiting a hearing, is unwise or presents a clear and present danger to the members of the University community. In such cases, a hearing before the Student Conduct Review Board will be arranged at the earliest possible time.
- e) The accused student has an opportunity to testify on his or her behalf, or refuse to testify or answer questions, on the grounds of self-incrimination.
- f) The accused student has the right to hear all evidence against him or her and to challenge the inadmissibility of any evidence.
- g) All matters upon which the decision is based must be introduced and discussed during the hearing process. The decision is based solely on the evidence presented.
- h) After the Student Conduct Review Board reviews all evidence and deliberates, the accused student may be requested to come back into the hearing room to hear the decision/right to appeal, or the student may be notified of the decision in writing within 48 hours after the hearing via VUU email and via postal mail.

- i) The sanction imposed by the Student Conduct Review Board will become effective before all appeals have been exhausted or rejected by the student within the specific time allowed for appeals.

NOTE: all Student Conduct Review Board, Administrative and Judicial Appeals Board hearings are closed to the public.

JUDICIAL APPEAL PROCEDURES

Any student found responsible for a violation by the judicial body shall have the right to an appeal. Only students facing suspension or expulsion may appeal to the Vice President of Student Affairs. All appeal requests must be submitted, in writing, to the Office of Judicial Affairs within 48 hours of notification of the hearing disposition. The appeal process does not afford a face to face meeting. It is imperative that written documents submitted be concise and factual.

- a) All appeals must be typed and presented in the format of the Disciplinary Appeal Form (see form C). Upon submission of the Appeal Form, the student should request that the form be date stamped and be provided with a copy of the date stamped form.
- b) The Judicial Appeals Board or the Vice President for Student Affairs has the option to make recommendations that extend the full range of the judicial system, from finding the student responsible or not responsible for the violation to recommending any sanction it deems appropriate to the offense, including maintaining, decreasing, or increasing the sanction.
- c) During appeal, the student will be required to adhere to the sanction(s) set forth in the initial hearing until a decision regarding the appeal is made. The decision of the Judicial Appeal Board serves as the final decision.
- d) Copies of all written materials used in the original hearing shall be made available to all members of the Judicial Appeals Board or the Vice President for Student Affairs. These materials shall include the charge letter, documentation reports, witness statements, disposition letter, and any other documents pertinent to the case.
- e) If the original hearing was taped, the Judicial Appeal Board or the Vice President of Student Affairs may also choose to listen to the tape(s).
- f) Copies of the request for an appeal and any additional documentation will be presented at the appeal review. All documents shall be held in confidence.
- g) The Director of Judicial Affairs will send a written outcome notice to the student within 48 hours of hearing the case via VUU email and via the postal service and/or via campus mailbox.

STUDENT MEDIATION

Student Mediation is a dispute resolution program designed to resolve problems, which develop between students. All students requesting and/or referred to mediation services will work with trained mediators and will develop a mutually agreeable solution. Please note that mediation services can be used independent of or in conjunction with the Student Judicial Affairs process.

Mediation Services

Students may resolve disputes by opting to participate in mediation. This service is voluntary and requires that all parties agree to actively participate in the mediation process. If a case is terminated without reaching a resolution, because of a lack of participation or disruptive behavior, the matter will automatically be referred for disciplinary review. Cases resolved through mediation cannot be appealed.

Who does the program service?

The program serves all undergraduate members of the University community who are either referred by University faculty, staff and/ or campus administrator or via a personal request for mediation services. A referral to or request for mediation services does not automatically remove the student from the Student Judicial Affairs process.

What are the goals of the Campus Mediation Program?

1. To serve the University community as a resource to reconcile disputes.
2. To provide the opportunity for individuals to learn how to resolve their problems through the process of mediation.
3. To prevent the escalation of disputes into more serious, disciplinary, criminal, or civil matters.
4. To alleviate the University Judicial System of minor disruptions that would best be resolved via mediation.

What types of conflicts can be handled by the campus mediation program?

The mediation program typically handles annoyances, minor roommate and interpersonal conflicts, breach of roommate contracts and/or inter-group conflicts.

Why use mediation?

1. The Mediation session is voluntary.
2. The session is scheduled quickly at a time and place convenient to both parties.
3. Both parties share opinions.
4. The content of the mediation session is kept confidential.
5. Any agreements must be mutual.
6. Students learn how to take responsibility and resolve their own disputes.
7. Escalation of minor matters into serious situations can be avoided.
8. Mediation allows the judicial system to address more complex matters.
9. Related problems can be identified and referrals made to appropriate agencies.

How does the Student Mediation Program Work?

The person who has a complaint comes or is referred to the Student Mediation Program. The other party is requested to come for a mediation conference. A trained mediator explains the mediation process to both individuals. Each person in the dispute presents his or her position. The mediator may talk separately with both persons. A written agreement is drawn up by both parties, and is a binding agreement. Problems are sometimes even resolved without a need for a formal mediation session.

Who attends the Mediation?

Mediator(s) plus the disputants; each disputant is entitled to bring statements from witnesses.

Who are the mediators?

Mediators are professionally trained University staff and students who serve as neutral parties. Mediators complete a 6 hour training program and are required to complete continuing education workshops held throughout the academic year.

Who can refer people to campus mediation?

Students, faculty, staff, or administrators can make referrals.

V. SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATION OF THE STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

If the accused is found responsible for any violation as outlined on the Table of Violations may result in the following:

1. DISCIPLINARY WARNING OR REPRIMAND

A disciplinary warning or reprimand is an official verbal and/or written statement of censure warning the student of unacceptable conduct. A violation of disciplinary warning or reprimand automatically constitutes disciplinary probation or a more severe sanction.

2. CONDITIONAL PROBATION

Conditional probation constitutes revocation of one or more student privileges. Sanction notification will indicate the time period for which the student has lost certain privileges.

3. COMMUNITY SERVICE

A student who receives this sanction will be required to perform a certain number of hours of work on campus for a designated individual or University department.

4. COUNSELING

Any student who receives this sanction will be required to meet with the Director of Counseling during the specified time frame. Failure to report will result in more severe disciplinary sanctions.

5. DRUG AND ALCOHOL PROGRAM

Students sanctioned to the Drug and Alcohol program will be required to pay for ($35.00) and complete the on line educational program. The sanctioned students will also be required to process the self assessment portion of the program with the University Counselor. Payment, program completion and assessment processing will need to be completed within the designated time frame.

6. RESTITUTION

Restitution is reimbursement for damage to, or misappropriation of property. It may be in the form of service or other compensation.

7. DISCIPLINARY PROBATION

A student placed on disciplinary probation shall be denied participation in intramural, intercollegiate and club sports for a specific period of time. Such a student may not represent the University in any public function or performance, hold office in student organizations, or be eligible to be initiated into a fraternity or sorority during their probationary status. Violation of disciplinary probation may constitute automatic suspension from the University.

8. SUSPENSION HELD IN ABEYANCE

In some cases, a sanction of suspension and/ or a denial of privileges may be held in abeyance for a specified period. Failure to comply with the conditions of this sanction, he or she will be subject to the deferred sanction (suspension from the University/ Suspension from the Residence Hall) without further review. In addition, if you are found responsible for any other violations during this stated period, the deferred sanction of suspension will become active. Please note, you do not have the right to appeal the deferred sanction (Suspension from the University/ Suspension from the Residence Hall) once it becomes effective.

9. SUSPENSION FROM THE RESIDENCE HALL

Suspension from the Residence Hall is used in cases where conduct violates policies and procedures of both the Student Handbook and Residence Life Handbook. Such students are prohibited from visiting any of the residence halls for the length of time imposed. Students suspended from the residence halls will get no refunds on room charges.

10. SUSPENSION FROM THE UNIVERSITY

Suspension is used in cases of serious misconduct generally lasts no longer than one academic year. Students suspended from the University may not return to the campus for the duration of their suspension, except to conduct official business with key administrative officers or faculty members, and then only with the permission of the Director of Judicial Affairs. Students suspended from the University will get no refunds.

11. INDEFINITE SUSPENSION FROM THE UNIVERSITY

Indefinite Suspension means that a specific date has not been recommended for the readmission of the suspended student. This sanction is used in cases of extremely serious misconduct wherein the appropriate hearing body desires that the student present evidence of rehabilitation before she or he is readmitted to the University. Persons suspended from the University may not return to the campus for the duration of the suspension, except to conduct official business with an administrative officer or faculty member, and then only with the permission of the Director of Judicial Affairs. Students indefinitely suspended from the University will get no refunds.

12. EXPULSION FROM THE UNIVERSITY

Expulsion is the most severe sanction, which can be imposed upon a student for violation of disciplinary procedures. Expulsion is permanent dismissal from the University, and the student is subject to the conditions cited under disciplinary suspension, except that the student is not eligible to apply for readmission to the University. Students expelled from the University will get no refunds.

ALMA MATER

Union, we'll e'er revere the cause for which you stand,
Union! Majestic light, send rays throughout the land;
Thy hallowed grounds and dear old walls,
 May they forever be,
 Dear Union, we still love thee;
Thy hallowed grounds and dear old walls,
 May they forever be,
 Dear Union, we still love thee.

O, for the happy hour we spend
On that cherished and sacred hill;
Our "Dream of Joy" to us attends,
 With truth and virtue to instill;
Thoughts of by-gone days at thy shrine
Fill my raptured soul with ecstasy,
Alma Mater, my praises are thine!
You are God's gift to humanity.

Union, we'll e'er revere the cause for which you stand,
Union! Majestic light, send rays throughout the land;
Thy hallowed grounds and dear old walls,
 May they forever be,
 Dear Union, we still love thee;
Thy hallowed grounds and dear old walls,
 May they forever be,
 Dear Union, we still love thee.
