

Vacancy Announcement

Assistant/Associate Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice

Virginia Union University (VUU) was founded in 1865 in the heart of Richmond, VA. Over the past 153 years, the university has become a premier liberal arts urban institution of higher education and center of excellence for the preparation of students and the development of leaders for tomorrow's world.

The School of Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, invites applications for one full-time tenure eligible or opted non-tenure eligible position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor beginning in August 2018.

Duties and Responsibilities may include but are not limited to the following:

The department seeks a dynamic individual to teach core undergraduate courses in criminal justice and criminology. Preference will be given to candidates with expertise in the following areas: 1) Research Methods and Statistics; 2) Forensic Investigations; or 3) Law Enforcement. In addition to teaching, the position entails undergraduate student advising, active participation in department, college and university committees, and active involvement in scholarly activities such as publishing and obtaining grants. Other duties may be assigned as needed, and excellence in teaching, research, and service is required for future promotion and tenure consideration.

Qualifications:

Successful candidates who opt for a tenure eligible appointment will be expected to conduct or have the potential to conduct quality research as evidenced by publication in respected academic journals and to be willing and able to participate in prominent national and international academic conferences, if such opportunities are presented. All candidates will be expected to teach appropriate courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels and participate in service activities and have professional interaction.

Required Qualifications

A Ph.D. in Criminology or Criminal Justice in hand is required. Strong consideration will be given to highly qualified ABD individuals. Applicants must show promise of excellence in research and teaching, value collegiality, and a desire to contribute to the School of Arts and Sciences, the Department and the students.

Preferred Qualifications

The ideal candidate will be comfortable with either a 4/4 non-tenure track teaching load or a 3/2 tenure-eligible teaching load.

Salary: Commensurate with experience.

Applications Deadline:

Review of candidate materials will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applications should include a resume with three references and a cover letter and should be emailed to Resumes@vuu.edu. Please call (804) 257-5841 with any questions.

The selected applicant may be required to submit to a background investigation. VUU is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, disability, gender identity, protected veteran status, or other protected class.
