The University assesses academic standing and the statuses of Academic Warning, Academic Probation, Academic Dismissal and Academic Recovery based on academic performance following each of the fall and spring semesters. For students on Academic Recovery, academic standing is also assessed following summer sessions.

A student on Academic Warning or Academic Probation or a student who is granted Academic Recovery status must meet with an advisor to discuss his/her academic standing. An advisor will help in planning a schedule of courses to assist the student in achieving above the Dismissal GPA. A student on Academic Warning will be able to self-register after this meeting; a student on Academic Probation or Academic Recovery must be registered by his/her advisor.

If a student is on Academic Dismissal status for the first time, the student has two options:

1. Apply for Reinstatement

A student on Academic Dismissal status for the first time may apply for reinstatement not less than one year from the date of last enrollment at the University. At the time of application, all credit hours will be evaluated. Final determination of the acceptability of such credit hours is the responsibility of the applicable academic unit.

2. Reinstatement through Academic Recovery

A student on Academic Dismissal status for the first time may apply for Academic Recovery status through their respective advising unit. Academic Recovery would be applicable the next immediate semester or summer term unless the student is granted a Leave of Absence pursuant to university policy. Students granted Academic Recovery status will be required to meet with advisors, complete a minimum of six credit hours for the semester and achieve a minimum semester GPA requirement of 2.0. (Note: It is highly recommended that a student consistently achieves a 3.0 in an effort to raise the cumulative GPA to at least a 2.0).

During the student's first semester or summer session of Academic Recovery status, the student will not be in Academic Good Standing and therefore will be ineligible for aid of any kind, including without limitation federal loans or grants, tuition remission, and scholarships.

Students who successfully complete the requirements of the first semester or summer session on Academic Recovery status may:

- a. return to Academic Good Standing if a GPA of 2.0 or higher is achieved
- b. be permitted to attend classes during the next summer session or semester.

Students may only continue on Academic Recovery if they meet the Target Semester GPA of 2.0 or higher. (See Appendix 2.) The student must maintain a GPA at or above the Target Semester GPA in each semester or session they are on Academic Recovery. Students on Academic Recovery must register for a minimum of six (6) credit hours per term. Course overloads are not permitted while on Academic Recovery.

Students may not remain on Academic Recovery status for more than two academic years following their original dismissal.

Students who do not meet requirements of their Academic Recovery status during any summer session or semester will be Academically Dismissed for a second time. Upon the second Academic Dismissal a student must wait and apply for reinstatement not less than one year from the date of the first Academic Dismissal in accordance with this policy.
