The University permits the student to be readmitted to the University under certain circumstances. Any student who has officially withdrawn from the University for personal or medical reasons, or who stopped attending for any other reason, i.e., suspended for academic or behavioral concerns, or dropped out, must reapply for admission by completing an Application for Readmission obtained from the Office of the Registrar. All previous balances must be satisfied prior to the determination of academic eligibility to return.

Applications must be submitted at least one month prior to the beginning of the semester for which the student is requesting reenrollment.

Any student who did not maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of a 2.0 at the time of withdrawal from the University must, along with the Application for Readmission, provide a personal statement showing an understanding of what led to poor academic performance and the steps the student expects to take to keep from repeating those behaviors that caused the problem. In cases of behavioral suspension, students must be cleared by the Office of Student Affairs.

Readmission to the University is not a guarantee of eligibility for financial aid. Past academic performance may indicate that a student has not made sufficient progress to receive such aid. Also, on-University housing is not a guarantee to the student.

The student should visit the offices of Financial Aid, and Residence Life to determine the availability of housing and financial aid as soon as the application for readmissions is processed.
