POLICY IDENTIFICATION: REPEATING COURSES
EFFECTIVE DATE: 1/08/90
Reviewed: 1/30/09
LAST REVISED: 05/2022

It is the policy of the University that students may repeat a course for which a student has already received a grade of C-, D+, D, D- to improve a grade. It is advisable for the student to consult with the academic advisor before repeating a course. A student may repeat one time, a course in which s/he has received a passing grade. Only one of the grades will be counted toward graduation, including the course is coded "R" on the transcript to indicate the repeat.

Grades for all attempted courses remain on the student's permanent record. Students may not repeat courses for which they received transfer credit. Repeating a course may limit students' ability to meet the satisfactory academic performance requirements for receipt of federal financial aid. Also, repeating courses for which students have already received an acceptable passing grade may not be included as part of student's minimum full-time or part-time course load for Federal and State financial aid purposes.

Initiating the repeated course option will not result in a change in previously earned academic statuses, i.e., probation Students who choose to repeat a course must do so before the awarding of their undergraduate degrees from VUU. The student's GPA will not be affected by repeating a course at any time after graduation
