

JOHN W. KINNEY
CENTER FOR TRANSFORMATIVE THEOLOGY
AND EMBODIED FAITH

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Applications must be submitted directly to:

John W. Kinney
Center for Transformative Theology and Embodied Faith
Dr. Gregory M. Howard, Director
1500 N. Lombardy Street
Kingsley Hall, Room 306
Richmond, Virginia 23220
Office: (804) 257-5715
Email: JWKCenter@vuu.edu

The JWKCTTEF Scholarship is an award granted to graduate students enrolled in either the Doctor of Ministry or Master of Divinity degree programs who demonstrate in their studies a focus on impacting communities through social activism, social justice advocacy and transformational leadership. Indicate your area of concentration or service under the program in which you are enrolled.

Doctor of Ministry (DMIN) program with a concentration in (select one):

- Community Health and Sustainability Global Leadership and Institution Reform
- Global Leadership and Institution Reform
- Preaching and Social Concerns
- Worship and Creative Expressions
- Youth and Young Adult Engagement

Master of Divinity (MDiv) program with service in (select one):.

- Social Activism
- Social Justice Advocacy

The closing date for the scholarship application is June 30th.

APPLICANT INFORMATION:

FIRST NAME: LAST NAME:

VUU STUDENT ID: EMAIL:

ADDRESS:

PRIMARY TELEPHONE #: MOBILE #:

SIGNATURE: _____ DATE: _____

Writing requirement: Complete and attach a three- to five-page statement (typed and double-spaced) addressing a solution to a current injustice or social-ill from an advanced theological perspective. Be sure to discuss how your experience/service in this area has impacted your passion for this issue. (NOTE: Incomplete applications will neither be considered nor kept on file.)

Office Use Only: Decision-Approved: _____ Denied _____ Date: _____